

PART TIME KITCHEN PORTER

Job type: Part time

Location: Cardigan

Hours: 16.5 p/week.

Salary: Competitive

Crwst is a new and exciting food business due to open in Cardigan this spring. Taking our current 'micro-bakery' to the next step, we will focus on bringing innovative and rustic food to our changing seasonal menu. We take pride in making everything from scratch ensuring the best of quality along with delivering top-notch service whilst embracing local producers and suppliers. We will be open from morning to evening offering a casual but contemporary dining atmosphere. Our deli section will have an array of Crwst products from our real bread to patisserie style bakes and the best of Welsh and local produce.

We are looking for a friendly and enthusiastic kitchen porter to join our new team. This role is an integral part to the running of the kitchen. The ideal candidate will have the ability to work well within a team including good communication and organisational skills. As a kitchen porter, responsibilities will include pot wash and keeping the area clean and organised at all times along with the general cleaning and closing down of the kitchen at the end of service.

Working days will be Thursday – Saturday evenings during restaurant service with the scope for more evenings during seasonal holidays.

If you think you are the right person for this role, then please get in touch by sending your CV and a cover letter to contact@crwst.cymru.
